EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order further amends the Copyright (International Conventions) Order, 1957.

It provides that in the case of sound recordings originating in Ceylon the acts restricted by the copyright in such recordings shall include causing them to be heard in public and broadcasting them.

The Order also takes into account the fact that—

- (a) Sweden has subscribed to the Brussels text of the Berne Copyright Convention and has ratified the Universal Copyright Convention,
- (b) Dahomey is now in its own right a member of the Berne Copyright Union, and
- (c) Belgium (including Ruanda-Urundi) has acceded to and Nicaragua has ratified the Universal Copyright Convention.

The Order is extended to those countries to which the 1957 Order already extends.
